Diaz Stands Pat.

The belief is rapidly gaining credence in Mexico City that Diaz will not listen to any talk of a peace conference with the leaders of the Mexican rebels. It is said that Diaz is loath to take a step that must necessarily mean the end of his reign in the Southern republic.

Reconsidered.

It isn't the man who paints his virtues in three colors and begs her to marry him, but the one who paints his sins in vermilion and begs her to "save" him who usually wins the girl.

A Bachelor Girl's Reflections

(By Helen Rowland in the Chicago Journal.)

In the sex-warfare a woman's most valuable asset is "chic," a man's is cheek.

It isn't that girls are so anxious to marry, but they think it up to them to be engaged.

In smart society marriage is becoming merely the intermission between one's divorces.

Love is never quite dead so long as two people are sufficiently interested to quarrel with each other.

A man doesn't object to a girl having a knowledge of the world; it's letting him know that she has it that shocks his sensitive soul.

The difference between a "drinking man" and a "high liver" is merely a question of whether he gets it at the corner cafe or a club.

That tired expression on a bachelor's face is not so often the result of brainfag from an overworked mind as of heartfag from overworking the emotions.

When a man promises in a careless moment to "love, honor and cherish" a woman, it gives him a cold shock to wake up and find that this includes paying for her hats.

Somehow a woman can take the news that her husband has robbed a bank or broken a limb much more calmly than she can the news that he has been seen with a blonde.

If you want a man to propose don't try to make your family coddle him. Make them hate him, because a man never really "takes hold" until somebody begins to pull the other way.

Half the world thanks heaven that its better half doesn't know how to amuse itself.

EVER WATCHFUL

A Little Care Will Save Many Hopkinsville Readers Future Trouble.

See that they have the amber hue of health;

The discharges not excessive or infrequent;
Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

Mrs. Francis Brown, 204 Fourth St., Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "There is no doubt about Doan's Kidney Pills living up to the claims made for them and you are at liberty to use my name as one who recommends them highly. I was annoyed for years by backache which came on by spells, especially severe if I contracted a cold. About four years ago I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills and was not disappointed with the results. After taking a dozen or two I knew that this remedy was acting directly on my kidneys and in a short time my trouble ceased. During the past four years I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store, when having similar attacks and in every instance they have given me prompt relief. We think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills and always keep them in the house."

PREFERRED GOOSE FLESH.

Farmer Jenkins believed in the good old-fashioned idea of giving all the farm hands and laborers a real good feed at the festive season. So he determined to give them something to remember last year and ordered the feast to start with soup, to be followed by goose, roast beef and unlimited supplies of plum pudding.

The farm hands duly assembled, and having fasted all day, so as to be in good trim for the Christmas feed, were prepared to make the supplies look foolish. Roast goose and beer were all they expected.

"Ere, what's this 'ere?" said a disappointed, sturdy son of toil, when a huge plate of soup was placed before him. "You've forgotten the goose and stuffin'. I don't want all gravy!"—Judge.
